Privacy Policy

Our privacy policy is very simple. We will never give, sell or make your email address available to anyone for any purpose at any price. That's been our policy since we began business and it will remain that way.

We believe that to do differently without your permission would be violation of your privacy and would never be a part of it. Honouring your trust is a simple matter of honesty.

As a client, we will obviously need to hold certain information that pertains to the business relationship between Secura Hosting Ltd and your company or employees of your company or individuals designated by you the client. Any and all such information will be kept secure and in the strictest confidence and in accordance with the UK Data Protection Act 1998.

If you have any questions about how we handle your information, just email your questions to us at info@securahosting.com
